President Calvert N. Ellis

Nineteen hundred sixty-four marks the 21st year for President Calvert N. Ellis as head of the administration on College Hill. His experience as a traveler, lecturer, teacher and administrator brings to Juniata a broad range of abilities and knowledge which he shares freely with the administration, faculty, and students.

President Ellis is actively interested in all phases of campus life. Although his main duties are administrative, he creates time to support the athletic, social and academic activities of the college community.

Juniata College is fortunate in having a man of such experience, understanding and versatility as President Ellis; a man who is certain to contribute as much in the years to come as he has in the past to maintain and improve the reputation of our college.

Dean Morley J. Mays

In charge of the academic life of the college is Dean Morley J. Mays. Dean Mays has been with the administration since 1948. In addition to his daily duties of conferences, meetings, and office work, he is a part-time member of the faculty. His new position as Vice President in charge of Academic Affairs has brought Dean Mays new and more challenging responsibilities which he has fulfilled with an extra measure of ability.

However, Dean Mays is never too busy to welcome students into his office for personal conferences. His interest in college life is evidenced in his willingness to assist in special conferences and his support of all phases of the college community life. With his wide range of ability and interest Dean Mays is a valuable asset to College Hill.

Dean Paul M. Heberling

Dean Heberling is well known to the men of Juniata College. His advice and understanding, always available, are highly valued by the students. The Dean is a member of the faculty and teaches courses in sociology and psychology. His administrative duties include serving as advisor to the College Senate and Judiciary and as a member of the Academic Standing Committee. The Dean is a valuable member of the administration and a friend to all the students both in the office and classroom. Juniata men are fortunate in having such an experienced man as Dean Heberling.

Dean Christine Yohe

For five years the women of Juniata have had as their friend and counselor Dean Yohe. She is always available for conferences and guidance to the students. Her responsibilities are many. She serves on the Student Senate, Campus Judiciary, Women's Judiciary, and as advisor for Women's Student Government. She also serves as a faculty member in the Business Administration department. Her interest in college life is evidenced in her support of all phases of college activities. Juniata women are certainly fortunate in having as their dean, Christine Yohe.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Ron Smelser, President

Rich Morgan, Vice-President

Leslie Eshelman, Treasurer

Bea Schorsch, Secretary

The Senate's function is to maintain an effective liaison between faculty, administration and students. More particularly it assumes the responsibility for the coordination of campus activities and for dynamic leadership.

The Senate members are elected each spring and assume their duties on Move-Up Day. In the ensuing year the Senators devote considerable time and energy to their job. In addition to the specific administrative tasks involved with their particular chairs, they have the responsibility of representing the student interests.

The particular accomplishments of the 1963-64 Senate include the addition of paperbacks in the bookstore, efforts to improve the appearance and atmosphere of Tote, a system to facilitate improvement of the cafeteria lines, the purchase and maintenance of a tool box for student convenience, and efforts to set up a system to critically evaluate the courses offered at Juniata.

SENATE CHAIRMEN

Herb Heckman, Chairman of Athletics

Dave Lee, Chairman of Communications

Tom Gibson, Chairman of Education

Thelma Hallman, Chairman of General Activities

John

Crai

John Reeves, Chairman of Men's Student Government

John Fike, Chairman of Religious Activities

Lois Williams, Chairman of Social Activities

Craig Satterlee, Chairman of Underclassmen

Marion Kercher, Chairman of Women's Student Government

Standing Committee

SEATED: Marion Kercher. STANDING: Rich Morgan, John Reeves, Dean Christine Yohe.

The Campus Judiciary is, as the name itself implies, a body formed to execute non-academic rules governing the campus as a whole. The Senate Vice-President is the chairman of the ten-member group comprised of three elected seniors, two elected juniors, the chairmen of Men's and Women's Student Governments, the Deans of Men and Women and a faculty member. The Campus Judiciary gives students a chance to practice the democratic form of government and also serves to instill a feeling of self-discipline in the student body in general. It has served this function efficiently since its establishment by the student body and the administration in 1956.

CAMPUS JUDICIARY

Elected seniors

SEATED: Michal Bahorik. STANDING: Sara Colbourne, Dick O'Connell.

Elected junior

Ed Fleck.

Circle K Club

The Circle K Club was initiated two years ago as an honorary service organization. The club is a subdivision of the Kiwanis International. Its goal of service is oriented toward church, community, and college life. One of the past accomplishments was the active participation in the formation of Pennsylvania District Circle K International.

SENATE COMMITTEES

Athletic Committee

The Athletic Committee assumes the responsibility of organizing all intramural sports, a year-round job. It provides activities for one of the largest participating bodies on campus. This year soccer and handball teams were added to the other sports of touch football, basketball, volleyball, softball, bowling, and tennis. In addition, the committee takes charge of the Interclass Track Meet, coordinates co-ed sports activities, and provides for any new sports that may arise. Good supervision and organization resulted in competition and plenty of enthusiasm.

SEATED: Carolyn Balko, Connie Cedrone. STANDING: Jim Mayhew, Tom Paxson, Tom Gibson.

The Educational Activities Committee and its chairman have attempted to refine and improve academic affairs on campus. A list of suggestions was compiled and submitted to the Dean of the College as a result of an investigation concerning scheduling and registration problems. A paperback book display emphasizing enjoyable and worthwhile literature was established in the Bookstore. In cooperation with the Dean of the College, the registrar and the faculty, a Dean's List of Distinguished Students and a Dean's Second Honors List was introduced. Furthermore, the committee continued such services as the Proctoring Bureau, Freshman Academic Aid, Comprehensive Study Groups and Culture Nights.

Educational Activities Committee

General Activities Committee

SEATED: Ruth Rierson, Dan O'Sullivan, Thelma Hallman, Sue Riddle. STANDING: Phyllis Dick, Sandy Youngk, Jill Tulman, Susan Habecker, Carol Champion, Mary Alice Moore.

The General Activities Committee plans most of the major campus events. Among the fall activities under its direction were the Roaring Twenties Homecoming Parade, Club Rush Week and Parents Day activities. The Christmas activities included the organization of class decorations, a carol sing, and a Christmas reading by Dr. Harold Binkley. Chamber Theater provided the theme for All Class Night this year. Spring events included Move-Up Day, Spring Carnival and Spring Mountain Day. The May Day Breakfast and afternoon festivities were carried out under the theme of Roman Holiday. In addition, the committee planned J.C. movie nights throughout the year.

Men's Student Government

SEATED: John Reeves, Jess Wright, Thomas Mull. STANDING: Bob Hoellein, Larry Landini, Tom Paxson, Dave Rodenbaugh, Jim Williams, Hal Yocum, Grey Berrier.

This group serves to maintain discipline and order in the men's dorms. Although final authority in such matters is vested in the Dean of Men, this committee provides opportunity for students to undertake some of the responsibility.

Sandy

Religious Activities Committee

This committee aids the student in one of the most important areas of his college life--religion. There is a great variety of religious denominations at Juniata, and the needs of each of these must be met. The conducting of All-College Worships, Religious Focus Weeks, and coordination of other religious activities on campus, such as Christmas vespers, are under the direction of the Religious Activities Committee.

The Social Activities Committee is charged with providing the campus with formal and informal dances and other social events. The chairman and her assistants plan and supervise these affairs. The committee initiated a move for big name entertainment last year and also worked with that in mind this year. It is to this committee that the campus owes its thanks for the special activities which occur throughout the year.

SEATED: Carolyn Ambler, Barb Antes, Jan Hess. STANDING: Penney Robinson, Diane Kissinger, Sharon Edgar, Lois Williams, Judy Rodgers, Marilyn Rear.

Social Activities Committee

Underclass Committee

SEATED: Diane Kissinger, Susan Habecker, Carolyn Ambler, Gail Woodworth. STANDING: Craig Satterlee, Jess Wright, Rolfe Wenner, Dave Lee.

This committee is most active in the fall when freshmen discover their need for proper guidance in learning the ways of student life at Juniata. Freshmen are always anxious to help this group in all their proposed projects, such as Freshmen Help Day, Freshmen Court, and the popular Freshmen Shows. The Big Brother and Sister program is also directed by this committee.

Women's Student Government is the representative body of the coeds. This group acts in a supervisory capacity as hall proctors and serves as a liaison between the women students and the Dean of Women. It sponsors the annual firelighting ceremony, exam teas, monthly table decorations, as well as other functions for the benefit of the whole student body.

Women's Student Government

Women's Judicial Board

SEATED: Phyllis Dick, Sharon Edgar. STANDING: Dean Christine Yohe, Dianne Heagy, Janet Bush, Francie Brumbaugh, Marion Kercher, Pat Pyle.

Headed by the Chairman of Women's Student Government, this board hears cases of violations of those rules that apply to the conduct of women resident students. It is concerned mainly with those violations dealing with infractions of curfew and dorm rules.

The facilities of the radio station WJC, the voice of Juniata College, underwent a major renovation at the close of the 1963 fall semester. The installation of new equipment helped to increase the professional level of the station. Much of the credit for these improvements must be given to a group of incoming underclassmen. Funds for the new equipment were obtained through the sale of newspaper subscriptions to students and faculty, and through the peanut concession at football games.

Business Staff

The Juniatian, run wholly under student direction, publishes a four-page paper weekly except during exam periods and has a circulation of 1800. It furnishes the student body, faculty, administration and subscribers with an account of events on campus as well as opinions of columnists on current national and international events. Particular features include Gort, Our Man in Nirvana and Report from Practically Nowhere. The Juniatian is a member of the Associated Collegiate Press and receives bi-annual evaluations; in addition, the managing editors attended the ACP conference in New York this year. The co-editors attended the press conference and dinner at which Governor Scranton was present to honor the Fiberglass Company of Huntingdon. In addition they observed a news conference in Harrisburg given by the governor expressly for collegiate journalists.

In 1941 Juniata College established the Honor Society to elevate the general scholastic standing of the college by honoring students who achieve outstanding scholarship. Students with outstanding scholarship, moral integrity and broad cultural interests are eligible for election.

Today, 1964, is a time of exciting change and progress. Students elected to the Society are no longer content to accept the academic honor without acting to promote a livelier intellectual spirit on campus. This year the Society has worked specifically to stimulate the exchange of ideas among students.

HONOR SOCIETY

TAU EPSILON SIGMA

Tau Epsilon Sigma serves to recognize those students who maintain a good cumulative average while making a significant contribution to the extracurricular life of the campus. Members of this honor service club serve the college by ushering for Oller Hall activities, participating in Brethren Campus Day, and serving as registration attendants during special weekends. This year the club also helped the Senate renovate Tote.

THE MARCHING BAND

The Juniata Marching Band, under the direction of Richard Hishman, along with the Pompon Girls, the Twirlers, the Cheerleaders and the Color Guard help to add spirit to the football games. These groups present half time shows at all the home games, as well as providing music for the Friday evening pep rallies.

At the beginning of the Homecoming Parade, the Marching Band gets into formation, preceded by the color guard and cheerleaders.

Barb Weening, drum majorette, leads the band in a parade.

The Pompon Girls, under the leadership of Gail Necker, included Marlene Fisher, Marilyn Rear, Penney Robinson, Barb Robbins, Judy Livengood, Marilyn Senio, Ruth Rank, Sandy Adoniades, Karen Shumoski and Linda Leopold.

Members of the cheerleading squad included head cheerleader Jan Peters, Marty Gaulin, Carol Marano, Lois Williams, Sandy Haines, Pam Stevens, Sue Vieth, Trudy Grose, Pam Moss and Lois Weader.

The Color Guard members for the 1963 season were headed by Cathy Fulmer. Other members were Dottie Platukis, Lynne Foster, Helen McGinley, Ann Gresimer and alternate Emily Feddeler.

The purpose of Sigma Psi is to further interest in the fields of psychology and sociology. It hopes to help the students gain more insight into these fields by consolidation and enrichment of experiences. Some of these experiences included informal discussions with qualified professional people, panel discussions by in-service students and visits to operational programs in psychology and sociology.

PYRENEES CLUB

The Pyrenees Club aspires to create a more vital interest in the study of modern romance languages and literature among its members. Anyone interested in French or Spanish may join the club. This year more students and faculty took an active interest in club activities which included a lecture on French art, films of special interest at J.C. movie nights, and a guest lecturer from Penn state.

BARRISTER CLUB

The aim of the Barrister Club is to provide a focus on those activities which center about the fields of law and history. The club attempts to bring to the campus each year several speakers who are acquainted with particular governmental problems. The club also presents films relating in detail some historical incident, and plans appropriate field trips, when there is sufficient interest.

PI DELTA GAMMA

Pi Delta Gamma, the classics club, was formed in the 1963 spring semester by a group of students under the direction of Dr. Evelyn Guss in order to stimulate interest in the study of the classics and to increase our knowledge of the cultures of ancient Greece and Rome. The club offers to interested students three academic programs a semester. The programs this year included a discussion on mythology, a reading of a Roman play, and a program on archaeology. Pi Delta Gamma also invites noted speakers and includes films in its programs.

PSEA

The Pennsylvania Students' Education Association, affiliated with PSEA-NEA groups, is for students interested in education. It is the largest club on campus. The theme for Juniata's PSEA this year was "Step Up to Professionalism" and was carried through in monthly activities. These activities included a tea during the membership drive to acquaint new and prospective members with Juniata's chapter, a Halloween party for grade school children, a panel discussion on discipline, a movie, a book review and a trip to Harrisburg. In addition Juniata sent delegates to two PSEA conferences during the year.

This year Juniata College's chapter of the American Home Economics Association used as its program theme "The Home and the Family." Programs included speakers and demonstrations to fulfill this theme. The club also planned a service project.

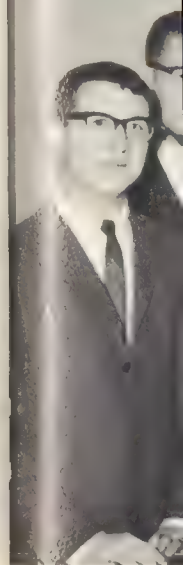

John Veals, Hal Summers, Fred Karsch, Bill Markham, Harry Ramsey, Gail Woodworth, Carol Brinton, Jan Wengerd.

SCALPEL AND PROBE

Biology students can gain additional insight into the practical side of their academic study field through Scalpel and Probe. The club invites contact with persons active in biological and medical endeavors. Field trips to clinical laboratories and hospitals introduce biology members to advanced study and career opportunities in biology and allied fields.

A newly organized group, the Astronomy Club, seeks to promote interest and participation in scientific activities, particularly those of astronomy, beyond the scope of the normal course curriculum. In working to fulfill its purpose, the club sponsors films, speakers, and holds observatory meetings out-of-doors. The club's chief goal this year has been to obtain a shelter for its telescope. The club with Dr. Wilfred Norris as faculty advisor, is open to all interested students.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

The Chemistry Club is a recognized student chapter of the American Chemical Society. It is open to all who have completed at least one semester of chemistry. Throughout the year the Chemistry Club attempts to present various speakers to lecture on certain aspects of chemistry of particular interest to its members. A picnic is usually planned in the spring of the year by the club for all of its members.

CAMERA CLUB

The main function of the Camera Club is to help the students who are interested in photography develop their skills. The club provides facilities for its members to do portrait photography. It also gives the inexperienced shutter-bug a chance to develop the fundamentals of the printing and developing processes. Club members take pictures at all the formal dances.

The students of the Deputation Club provide leadership for worship services and an introduction to Juniata College in churches throughout Pennsylvania. It also gives Juniata students an opportunity to talk with college-bound students in these various churches.

SEATED: Pam Kuhn, Lona Grim, Peggy Dilling, Norma Kinard, Carolyn Wetzel. STANDING: Doris Fluke, Rosalita Leonard, Pat Cauffield, Peggy Hockensmith, Barb Heyderhoff, Sandy Andoniades, Joyce Stratton.

Koinonia is composed of those students interested in Christian vocations. It seeks to provide an opportunity for systematic inquiry into theology and other related fields. Guest speakers and general discussions are the basis for this inquiry. The name, Koinonia, was derived from the Greek word meaning fellowship.

JCF

SEATED: Dottie Horton, Doris Fluke, Peggy Dilling, Alice Smith, Jana Smith. STANDING: Ginny Emery, Mary Snyder, Maxine Donahay, Rosalita Leonard, Joy Jackson, Andy Adede, Mary Jane Conner.

JCF is the Juniata chapter of Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship, a nationwide interdenominational student organization. JCF meets to consider the person and work of Jesus Christ, to clarify the importance of a faith relationship with Christ, and to emphasize His relevance to all aspects of life. The weekly fellowship meeting consists of inspirational singing, student presentations and group discussions. The year's programming also included special speakers and movies, banquets and parties.

WESLEY CLUB

The Wesley Club, organized last year, seeks to provide a student fellowship to promote better understanding of the Methodist Church and to be affiliated with the Methodist student movement in Pennsylvania. It is open to all students of Juniata who are in accord with the Methodist beliefs. Since the club is new, definite plans have not yet been made, but the members sang Christmas carols at the Methodist Home for the Aged in Tyrone and had a booth in the Spring Carnival. Various guests speak at the meetings. The Methodist Church has recently bought a farm near Tyrone which is available for Wesley Club meetings and it is planned that many outings will be held there in the future.

JBSF

The JBSF is made up of Brethren students and others who are interested in the role of the Christian on campus. JBSF meets every Sunday at 9:30 and holds additional meetings from time to time for discussions, inspiration, and fellowship.

NEWMAN CLUB

The Newman Club is the Juniata Catholic Club affiliated with the National Newman Club Federation, Washington, D.C. The organization is open to all Catholic students on campus and its purposes are the religious, intellectual, and social betterment of its members. A monthly activity which all members enjoy is the Communion Breakfast to which all Catholic students are invited and encouraged to attend by Father Ackerson, pastor of the Most Holy Trinity Catholic Church, Huntingdon, Pennsylvania.

SEATED: Denny Welshire, Bill Crowell, Barry Yuhas, Rich Adams.

The purpose of the Outing Club is to encourage enjoyment of the outdoors for all interested students and faculty. Overnight camping trips and hikes are two of the major activities that the club provides. This winter the club sponsored skiing lessons for beginners at the newly opened Blue Knob Ski Resort.

SEATED: Vicki Worden, Thelma Hansen, Gloria Zettle, Mary Kuderle. STANDING: Lawrence Casper, Cathy Fulmer, Bobbi Edwards, Verdean Cage.

WAA

The object of WAA is to promote participation in and feeling for sports among the women of Juniata College. Teams in hockey, basketball and track competed against other colleges, and intramural schedules in hockey, basketball, volleyball, tennis, archery and softball provided activity for many girls. The club also sponsors coed volleyball and it co-sponsored the Roaring 20's Homecoming Dance with the J-Club. Swimming and skiing trips and a spring sports day rounded out the club's agenda.

Football

A hard fought, come-from-behind, win over a highly favored Westminster team in the last game of the season made Fred Prender's first season as head coach at Juniata a winning one. Throughout the season the hard-nosed defensive football that Prender teaches made for some of the most thrilling games in recent years. Even in defeat the Indians showed their never-say-die spirit and in the three games they lost, the opposition outscored them by a total of only thirteen points.

Basically the winning season should be attributed to fine team play and the hard work of a group of seasoned veterans aided by an outstanding crop of freshmen. But some individual performances must also be cited, for nearly every Saturday there was at least one player who stood out whether in victory or defeat. And first on this list should be Bill Crowell, one of the outstanding Juniata linemen in recent years, who was senior co-captain and played five outstanding games at guard before suffering a broken leg. For his fine play against Geneva, Bill was named as first team guard on the weekly All East team and at the end of the year he was named second team guard on the Little All American team as well as first team guard on the All State team which included major as well as small college stars. The four other seniors on the squad, Tom Mull, Gar Royer, Grey Berrier and Larry Landini all started and played good consistent football. Landini in the Westminster game reached his peak as he completed seventeen passes to break the school record. Berrier, a four year letterman, led the team in scoring with twenty-four points, and along with Mull and Royer, anchored the defensive line. Barry Broadwater, a junior, was the team spark plug as he bounced back time and time again against larger opponents to lead the team in rushing with 406 total yards. And so one could mention the line play of Duane Ruble and Ed Fleck, the clutch pass catching of Bob Pascale, the bruising play of Don Corle and the quarterbacking of frosh Jim Sutton which got him named to the All East team for his play against Lycoming. But in the end it was, as always, the efforts of all these players and others performing together under excellent coaches that brought the victories.

It was a season of hard fought wins over traditional rival Albright, and always tough Geneva, Lycoming, Wilkes and Westminster as well as of close losses to University division Gettysburg, powerhouse Susquehanna and Trenton State. But more than this it was a season of great individual and team effort and sacrifice and just plain tough football. The five seniors who were all starters will be greatly missed next year but the return of the fine group of freshmen and a number of experienced upper-classmen under the leadership of captains-elect Ruble and Broadwater should lead to another great Juniata football year in '64.

Cross-Country

For the eighth straight year the cross country team under the direction of Coach Mike Snider came through with a winning record. The 1963 team's 7-2 mark brought Coach Snider's eight year record to an enviable fifty wins and four defeats including a thirty-eight meet win streak.

John Reeves, senior captain, showed steady improvement through the year and ended as the Indian's leading runner by grabbing off first place finishes in seven of the Tribe's nine meets as he led the team to wins over Albright, Franklin and Marshall, Susquehanna, Lock Haven, Geneva, Elizabethtown and Saint Francis. The victories over Geneva, Franklin and Marshall, and St. Francis were shutouts and in the St. Francis contest the Indians copped the first fourteen places. Right behind Reeves in most of the wins was junior Earl Samuel, who in fact finished in first place ties with Reeves in three meets. The third man in most instances was Dick O'Connell who was the fastest third man in recent years. Rounding out the top seven were seniors Bill Chew and Chet Berkey, both four year lettermen, and Fred Lytle and Rich Morgan, seniors who lettered in their first year on the team.

In the M.A.C. meet, which closed out the successful season, the harriers finished fourth in a strong field of twelve teams. Samuel ran the best race for Juniata as he finished fifth. Reeves was close behind in seventh place, followed by Chew in the twenty-fourth position and O'Connell in the thirty-eighth slot.

For the first time in recent years seniors made up a large part of the team as only two of the first eight men, Samuel and freshman Phil Jones, were underclassmen. But with their tradition of hard work and good records behind them we look for still another winning season in '64.

John Reeves heads for the home stretch.

WRESTLING

Wrestling continued to grow in popularity at Juniata as the 1963-64 squad under Coach Bill Berrier rolled to a five and five mark. The Juniata wins were in most cases close ones, and the team in more than one instance came from behind to pull out a win in the last matches.

Duane Ruble was once again the leading winner for the Tribe. The junior strong man, wrestling in the unlimited division, won seven and lost only two throughout the regular season and recorded six pins. Senior captain J.C. Day was also a consistent winner as he ended the season with a four and six slate with four falls to his credit. Several other underclassmen showed marked improvement. Dean Richards, Mel Rummel and Kent Trexler had several key wins throughout the season and freshmen Mike Shuey and John Civitts showed promise for the future.

With only one senior, J.C. Day, graduating from the 1963-64 team, Coach Bill Berrier can look forward to another good season next year. The growing number of wrestling fans at Juniata may expect another season of excitement from Juniata's newest sport.

BASKETBALL 1963-64

The 1963-64 basketball season proved to be a disappointing one for Juniata players, fans and coaches. The Indians roared off to easy victories over Lock Haven and Franklin and Marshall in the first two games of the season and it appeared that Coach Ralph Harden's rebuilding program was about to pay off with a winning season. But the tables were quickly turned when Lock Haven downed the Tribe in a rematch. From this time on, despite good individual performances and games, the Indians could not score consistently enough to win. The team's woes were increased as several players, including two starters, were declared scholastically ineligible at the end of the first semester. The roster was so depleted that the junior varsity schedule for the remainder of the season had to be discontinued.

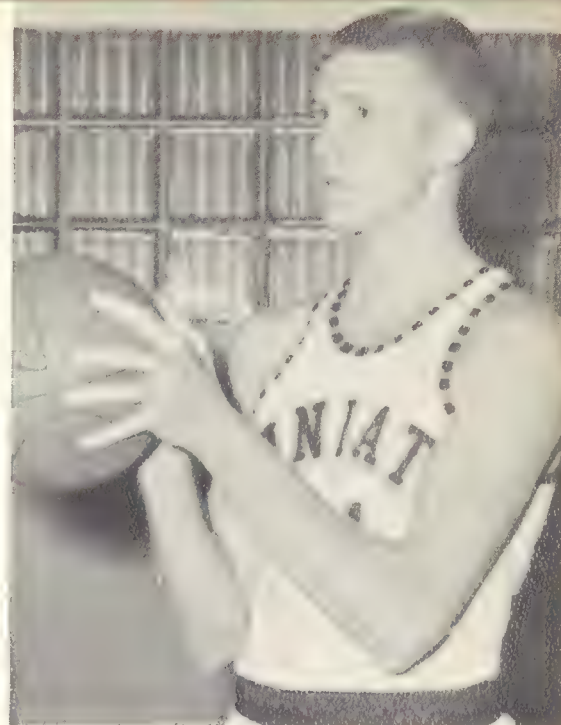

There were, however, some bright spots in the dark season in which the team ended with a six win-eleven defeat record. Leroy Mock, junior center and co-captain, played outstanding basketball before becoming ineligible. In the eleven games in which he played, Mock managed to score an average of seventeen points a game and to grab almost fifteen rebounds per contest. Two newcomers, junior college transfer Chuck Robuck and freshman Bob Pascale, also moved into the starting five and showed promise for the future. Robuck was among the national leaders in rebounding in the early weeks of the season and ended the campaign with an average of over fifteen rebounds and fifteen points per game. Pascale moved up to the varsity early in the season on the strength of his excellent floor play and defensive ability and managed to score nearly ten points per contest. The team included only one senior, Bob Hoellein, and a total of eight underclassmen held down starting berths throughout the season. With these experienced players returning, Coach Ralph Harden may look forward to better things in the future.

Track

Coach Mike Snider's thirtieth year as head track coach on College Hill proved to be one that he'll always remember. For the 1963 squad drove to its best record in over twenty years as it piled up a 10-1 win record. Besides the team record for wins in one season there were three individual records broken and one tied. The Indian wins included four dual meet victories over Lock Haven, Dickinson, Susquehanna and Albright as well as three first place finishes in triangular meets. The only loss was a close one to a tough Gettysburg squad.

A trio of dedicated seniors, Bob Berthold, Rob Gardner and George Zeigler, set a fast pace for the forty man squad. Gardner, who was selected as the team's outstanding player and outstanding athlete of the year, was the leading scorer with a total of 89 points piled up in a variety of events including the 440, 100 and 220 yard dashes. He was closely followed in scoring by sophomore Bill Baker, who garnered a total of 86 points in the hurdles and broad jump. Distance man Berthold and high jumper Zeigler added 77 and 30 1/2 points respectively. The individual records were set by Gardner in the 440 as his clocking of 50 seconds flat shattered a twenty-five year old standard, and by Berthold in the two mile run during the Middle Atlantics. Zeigler's high jump of six feet two inches tied a mark which had stood since 1943. A third record was shattered by the mile relay team of Gardner, junior Paul Shockey, sophomore Don Corle and freshman John Mitchell.

A fitting climax to the great season was the third place finish in the MAC's with 29 1/2 points. This marked the highest finish ever by a Juniata team and was all the more commendable since only ten men made the trip and every one of them scored. Berthold and Gardner closed out their illustrious careers by becoming the first individual winners for the Tribe in MAC competition since 1955.

Baseball

The 1963 edition of the Juniata baseball Indians roared off to a good start under interim coach Earl Kaylor by winning six of their first eight games. But a tough schedule of MAC opponents as well as a "Langdon Field jinx" caught up with them as they lost six and tied one of the final seven contests. In league play the Blue and Gold emerged as early favorites to cop the championship as they reeled off five consecutive league victories, including a big double win at Lycoming. But a double header loss to Elizabethtown and single defeats at the hands of Susquehanna and Upsala ended the hopes for a pennant. In these games it was actually a lack of offensive power coupled with shoddy fielding that caused the final downfall as the pitching remained consistent.

The individual leaders in the hitting department were Grey Berrier, junior catcher, who led in hitting with a .345 season average and Tony Faber, senior captain and centerfielder, who led in runs batted in with 18, total bases with 36 and home runs with five. Tony was also the team's "holler guy" and defensive spark plug and his all around play was recognized by his teammate who for the second straight year voted him the outstanding player award. From the mound corps, three-sport-man Don Engle, a 230 pound sophomore, emerged as leader. Don had the best won-lost record with three wins, two losses and a tie for a .600 percentage. He also led the staff in earned run average with a 2.06 mark, in strikeouts with 58 and in innings pitched with 56. In the final game of the year with Albright, Don struck out 20 batters as the game ended in an extra inning 3-3 tie.

With only two seniors lost from the 1963 team, the 1964 squad may look forward to another chance at the elusive MAC title.

Tennis

The loss of six lettermen from the fine 1962 squad made 1963 a year of rebuilding for the tennis team under Coach Ernie Post. The '63 netters had only one senior, Dick Henry, on its ten man roster, and throughout the season the underclassmen showed marked improvement. And even though the team won only one of eleven matches last year, there were five men who scored enough points to earn varsity J's.

Dave Rodenbough, a sophomore from Norristown, played the most consistent tennis and ended the season with six wins and five losses in singles play to pace the team in that department. Jack Haskell and Neale Clopper, both sophomores, followed closely behind as both posted five wins and six losses. Haskell was also the leading winner in doubles as he was instrumental in helping his team win five of eight contests in which they participated. His steady improvement and all-around play earned him the most valuable player award for tennis.

With all five of the lettermen returning in 1964, Coach Post is looking forward to a much improved record.

P. Chaffin, B. Campbell, J. Richardson, A. Larsen, M. Rappaport, D. Engle.

Golf

For the first time in its sixteen year history at Juniata, the golf team failed to win a match. Coach Bill Germann's boys, usually the class of the MAC, were a young team, however, with only one upperclassman, Pat Chaffin, on the squad. The other seven men were all freshmen with promise for the years ahead.

Mark Rappaport, a long driving freshman from Binghamton, New York, had the best record for the year as he won seven, lost four and tied one. For his consistently fine play he was named outstanding member of the team. Another freshman, Dennis Engle, posted the second best mark as he won six and lost six. With the strong nucleus of freshmen returning, the fairway men can hope for better things to come in the 1964 season.

Library Moving Day

Early in the morning on September 19, 1963, over 900 students and faculty members began moving books from the old Carnegie Library to the new Beeghly Library. The smoothness of the operation was the result of careful planning by Mrs. Anne Catlin, director of libraries, Mrs. Sarah Hettinger, Mrs. Grace Shuler and Mrs. Lenore Conley. Over 60,000 books were moved by yellow, blue and red teams under the direction of faculty traffic cops headed by Dr. Ronald Cherry. The Juniata band provided "music to move books by," and halfway through the morning coffee and donuts revived the book movers. After lunch the moving continued, and over 40 students received assorted prizes--$5 coupons for the bookstore, records, free movie tickets--for their diligent efforts. The ringing of the victory bell in Founders marked the end of Library Moving Day.

Freshman Days

"Ellis? I think he's got something to do with the administration."

Juniata's fall events began with Leadership Conference for delegates and Senators at Camp Blue Knob early in September. Once everyone returned to campus, the fall activities were officially inaugurated. The first get together for all students included a picnic dinner in Sherwood Forest, the All-College Mixer and the Faculty Reception. Specifically for the freshman was the annual reception at President Ellis' home in Taylor Highlands, Freshman Help Day, court nights, "talent" shows and various other hazings under the supervision of Craig Satterlee, Chairman of Underclassmen. Around huge bonfires, the cheerleaders, band, majorettes, pompon girls and "Little Men" cheered the football and cross country teams.

"I don't think I caught your name."

"Let's see. . . Mother said no chocolate and no nuts."

Botany hikes aren't always this primitive, Sally!

"O.K. guys, the agenda for the day will be . . ."

"Hmm - Good!"

"To Juniata, college dear, in praise we raise our song . . ."

"And I promise that if I am elected..."

QUEEN JANET PETERS

SENIOR ATTENDANT
SALLY BARCKLOW LEROY

JUNIOR ATTENDANT
SANDY HAINES

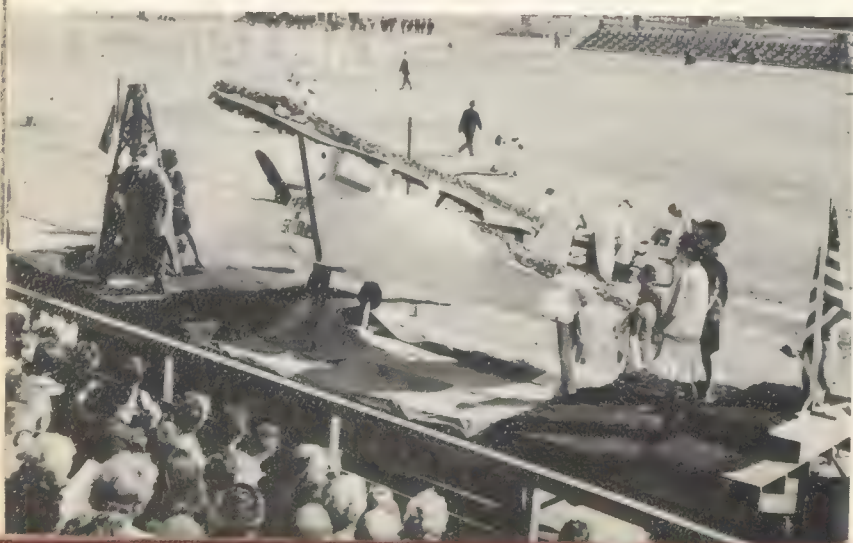

Friday, October 11, marked the beginning of Juniata's 1963 "Roaring Twenties" Homecoming. Festivities began in the afternoon with the dedication of the L. A. Beeghly Library, preceded by the academic procession to Oller Hall. That evening the Jazztet presented a concert in South Hall; a hootenany in Sherwood followed. Saturday's activities began when Queen Jan Peters and her attendants, Miss Sandy Haines, junior, and Mrs. Sally Barcklow Leroy, senior, headed the float parade downtown, followed by class floats, Senate officers, class officers, the Juniata Band and several visiting high school bands. A well-played football game with Susquehanna gave returning alumni something to cheer for. The crowning of Queen Jan Peters by Mrs. Lynnea Knavel Detwiler, Miss Homecoming 1962, highlighted the halftime ceremonies. Rounding out the traditional activities, Miss Barb Canto, last year's general activities chairman, presented the float prize to the Class of '66. The "Roaring Twenties" dance ended the 1962 Homecoming day.

"And if I catch you just one of you trying to climb a tree . . . ."

Mountain Day

"See ya in health class, guys!"

As tradition would have it each year, classes were cancelled and students set out for the mountains at Greenwood Furnace on Mountain Day, October 17, 1963. Still another tradition was the presence of Mike Snider. Many students spent most of the morning tramping through the woods on a two hour hike, while others stayed behind to await lunch and play football, volleyball, horseshoes, and other sports. However, some retired to quiet corners to relax and study. When the hikers returned, lunch was served. Buses returned to campus in the middle of the afternoon, and a dance that evening rounded out the day's activities.

PLAY PRODUCTIONS

The 1963 Masque, under the direction of Clayton Briggs, gave Juniata a wide variety of presentations ranging from slapstick comedy by Moliere to serious Shakespearian drama. Macbeth, presented during the spring, was a masterpiece with a superb cast including Sue Judy as Lady Macbeth and Bud Colflesh as Macbeth.

In contrast to this production a Moliere comedy entitled The Physician in Spite of Himself, was presented in the fall. An orchestra representative of the fifteenth century in style and costumes improvised with musical selections appropriate to that period.

Jess Wright also appeared in Macbeth.

Founders porch becomes a choir loft.

Juniata's Christmas festivities officially terminated when vacation began December 21. Until then many activities gave the campus an air of warm Christmas spirit. Class decorations included a Christmas living room by the seniors, Santa's workshop by the juniors, a stained glass window and choir by the sophomores and a winning angelic Christmas scene by the freshmen. Two annual traditions were offered once again with Dr. Binkley's reading of A Christmas Carol and the presentation of "Pageant of the Christ Child," the annual nativity pageant in Oller Hall. Through the cooperation of the Salvation Army, 123 children were "adopted" by foster mother and fathers at the annual Children's Christmas Party. This year, as an added activity to the Christmas week, a carol sing was held in Brumbaugh Hall. As a highlight to the Christmas festivities, students transformed Oneida Dining Hall and Memorial Gym into a ski lodge for the annual Christmas banquet and dance.

ALL CLASS NITE

All Class Nite of 1964, coordinated by Bea Schorsch and Dean Buckwalter, developed a chamber theater theme. The senior class chose to do a four scene production of "Midnight at the Movies," a parody on horror films. The script was written by Ron Smelser and Dave Lee, with Phil Fair, John Reeves, Fred Lytle, Jim Bistline, Rich Morgan, and Carol Marano among the cast. The fertile imagination of the class of '65 again produced the winning play-- "Royal Pawns" written by Jess Wright and Jim Richardson. The play was a comedy involving a suspicious husband who took advantage of the Mardi Gras festivities to reveal the unfaithfulness of his wife. The leads were well played by Ed Fleck, Ron Ferraro, Roy Bulkley and Linda Hinkle.

The sophomore production, "When in the Course of Human Events" was authored by Dale Evans, Jim Lehman and Doug Quick. The play was a series of scenes revealing how the ideals for which American Revolutionaries sacrificed their lives have become a mockery in our contemporary society. Leading roles were handled by Barry Bratton, Doug Quick, Jim Lehman, and Dave Kuhn. The freshman class collaborated to produce a satire concerning the complacency of modern life entitled "Not Much Ado about Anything." It was directed by Jana Smith and Bob Hale and the leads were played by Steve Herr and Karen Klinger.

May Pole Dancers

The dance "New York, New York," a Central Park and Times Square theme, culminated the activities on May Day, 1963. In the afternoon, the presentation of the court was held in front of a panorama of a New York skyline on Oller Hall lawn. Freshman girls performed a modern dance and the traditional May Day pole dance. Week-end activities included a movie in Oller Hall on Friday and an open house and baseball game with Shippensburg on Saturday.

May Day breakfast came on a snowy first day in May. A very unusual New York style breakfast was served.

FIBERGLAS Shapes Tomorrow At The World's Fair Today

When the 1964 edition of the Alfarata is distributed, several million people will have visited the New York World's Fair on Long Island's Flushing Meadows.

And millions more Fair visitors will see combination Fibreglas and plastic materials play a significant part in many buildings, a permanent "Marina of the Future," in transportation vehicles and numerous other applications.

Notable is the American Telephone and Telegraph building, (shown above) the world's largest structure, to be sheathed in Fibreglas-plastic panels. The lightweight Fibreglas material enhances the building's "floating wing" design and unbroken surface appearance.

The New York World's Fair structures incorporate the application of various types of Fibreglas materials produced at the Huntingdon Owens-Corning Plant where more than 700 of your friends and neighbors are doing exciting things with this newest and most versatile form of glass.
